

Unique One-stop-shop

The city of Sierre operates an economic development office to facilitate the municipal administration processes and contact with the relevant players in the regional economy. Close collaboration with the cantonal services ensures you are provided with the answers and support you need to establish yourself here.